Dear Jim Bill:

I do appreciate your willingness to help with the proposed television appearance the week of November 7. I perfectly understand the situation and am grateful that you did try to get something worked out. In view of our pressing circumstances here, I think it best to decline the December appearance. At a later time, if it is thought important, I will recontact you about a possible appearance. For the time being, I think it best that we not attempt to schedule it.

The man who contacted you in Abilene is Murrell Foster, Fidelity Enterprises. Thank you again for your concern and work on behalf of this matter.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
